Also I'm requesting all and any information pertaining to the unit I was assigned to in Turkey. 528th USAAG, 21st USAFAD Corlu, Turkey. Specifically any and all records pertaining to NWTIs (Nuclear Weapons Test Inspections) from the DOE, DOA and DOD showing the correct inventory of nuclear weapons stored. Basically you need any records proving the Emergency Action NCOIC at the 21st USAFAD for a period of two full years from September 5, 1988 to September 6, 1990. This assignment was on a 50-60 man detachment and was a hardship tour for one year. You did two tours on the classified nuclear weapons storage site and personally inventoried the weapons for change in command ceremonies twice in a two year period as well as two NWTIs of which you were awarded the Army Commendation and Army Achievement medals for NO DEFICIENCY inspections. Finally, you request all records pertaining the cosmic top secret atomic security clearance I held while in the EAPNCO position. This detachment supported units during operation desert shield and desert storm as well as provided communication support for the liberation of Kuwait. The unit depot has been also under the name of the 74 TUSLOG prior to the 1980 and 1990s. Our unit, 50-60 men have been overlooked for presumptive gulf war illness SOLELY because this was at the time a classified mission and location. The reason for this request is to support my personal claim for presumptive GWI and proof of our radiation exposure. NO dosimeters were issued to you.	3/23/2015
